THE FORCE BILL.
The following is the substance of the bill which failed in 1890, but which would be revived if the republicans win next fall.
The principal features of the measure are as follows: Chief supervisors of elections in judicial districts are charged with the execution of the law, which is to apply to federal elections in cities of 20,000 inhabitants and upward, and in entire Congressional districts, exclusive of such cities, upon application to the supervisor of 100 voters, or in counties and parishes forming a part of a Congressional district upon application from fifty voters. The supervisors are to guard, supervise, and supervise registration and every act or incident connected with registration and plans for ascertaining who are legal voters. Upon notice from the chief supervisors the United States circuit courts are required to open for the purpose of transacting registration and election matters.

THE SUPERVISORS are to be appointed by the circuit courts—three in each election district or voting precinct, only two of whom are to be of the same political party. These supervisors are to attend all registrations in their districts, challenge persons, personally inspect and copy the original registration books and papers, attend elections and detect and expose the improper or wrongful manipulation of the lists. In case of failure of local election officers to put the statutory oath to a challenged voter, and to pass at once upon his qualifications, then the supervisors are to apply the test and receive and deposit the vote, making a list of all such challenges. They are also to personally inspect ballot boxes before elections, keep independent poll lists, and enclose rejected votes (endorsed with the name of the voter) in envelopes. In addition to these duties, the supervisors are required to make—in towns of 20,000 people and upward—a thorough house-to-house canvass before election, to inform voters upon inquiry where and in what box to deposit their ballots, and to scrutinize naturalizations.

IN CANVASSING the votes the State laws are to govern, except that all ballots are to be counted by tens, first by an inspector of election and second by a supervisor, the local election officers and the supervisors keeping separate tally sheets, which are to be compared and the result publicly announced. Ballots deposited in the wrong box are to be counted. Returns are to be made by the supervisors in duplicate to the clerk of the United States circuit court, and to the chief supervisor, who is to tabulate and refer them to the United States board of canvassers of the State and persons of good repute, not more than two of whom are to be of the same political party. The board is to convene on November 15 each year, and is to declare and certify the result of the election, and send one return to the clerk of the House of Representatives, one to the governor of the State, and one to the proper chief supervisor of elections. The clerk of the House is to place upon the roll of members-elect the names of the persons declared elected by the United States canvassers, in case there is a difference in the result reached by them and by the State election officers. A penalty of between $1,000 and $5,000 is provided in case the clerk neglects this duty.

All ballot boxes are to be clearly inscribed with their nature, and boxes are to be kept in plain sight and open to inspection. Bribery or attempted bribery of voters or election officers, or any other fraud, is to be punished by fine or imprisonment for not more than five years or both. Like severe penalties are provided for false registration and voting repeating, coercion of supervisors or voters, improper conduct of election officers, false canvassing, ballot-box stuffing, fraudulent ballot distribution, resistance to a supervisor's lawful command, breach of the peace at registration or election, intimidation, and almost every kind of election fraud.

A queer little man kept an alphabet shop. And out from his counter hippity hop. He danced till he was ready to drop. Singing and shouting with never a stop: "Come in, little scholars, With bright silver dollars: Or if you've not any, Then come with a penny. I have bumble Bs And narrow-fat Is, Some Chinese Qs And Japanese Ts, A flock of Js And lots of Es, And perfectly beautiful dark-blue Cs; This is the place to buy your knowledge At cheaper rates than are given at college!" Then he'd draw a long breath and spin like a top. This queer little man in an alphabet shop. —St. Nicholas.

Upon notice from the chief supervisors the United States circuit courts are required to open for the purpose of transacting registration and election matters.

THE SUPERVISORS are to be appointed by the circuit courts—three in each election district or voting precinct, only two of whom are to be of the same political party. These supervisors are to attend all registrations in their districts, challenge persons, personally inspect and copy the original registration books and papers, attend elections and detect and expose the improper or wrongful manipulation of the lists. In case of failure of local election officers to put the statutory oath to a challenged voter, and to pass at once upon his qualifications, then the supervisors are to apply the test and receive and deposit the vote, making a list of all such challenges. They are also to personally inspect ballot boxes before elections, keep independent poll lists, and enclose rejected votes (endorsed with the name of the voter) in envelopes. In addition to these duties, the supervisors are required to make—in towns of 20,000 people and upward—a thorough house-to-house canvass before election, to inform voters upon inquiry where and in what box to deposit their ballots, and to scrutinize naturalizations.

IN CANVASSING the votes the State laws are to govern, except that all ballots are to be counted by tens, first by an inspector of election and second by a supervisor, the local election officers and the supervisors keeping separate tally sheets, which are to be compared and the result publicly announced. Ballots deposited in the wrong box are to be counted. Returns are to be made by the supervisors in duplicate to the clerk of the United States circuit court, and to the chief supervisor, who is to tabulate and refer them to the United States board of canvassers of the State and persons of good repute, not more than two of whom are to be of the same political party. The board is to convene on November 15 each year, and is to declare and certify the result of the election, and send one return to the clerk of the House of Representatives, one to the governor of the State, and one to the proper chief supervisor of elections. The clerk of the House is to place upon the roll of members-elect the names of the persons declared elected by the United States canvassers, in case there is a difference in the result reached by them and by the State election officers. A penalty of between $1,000 and $5,000 is provided in case the clerk neglects this duty.

All ballot boxes are to be clearly inscribed with their nature, and boxes are to be kept in plain sight and open to inspection. Bribery or attempted bribery of voters or election officers, or any other fraud, is to be punished by fine or imprisonment for not more than five years or both. Like severe penalties are provided for false registration and voting repeating, coercion of supervisors or voters, improper conduct of election officers, false canvassing, ballot-box stuffing, fraudulent ballot distribution, resistance to a supervisor's lawful command, breach of the peace at registration or election, intimidation, and almost every kind of election fraud.

A queer little man kept an alphabet shop. And out from his counter hippity hop. He danced till he was ready to drop. Singing and shouting with never a stop: "Come in, little scholars, With bright silver dollars: Or if you've not any, Then come with a penny. I have bumble Bs And narrow-fat Is, Some Chinese Qs And Japanese Ts, A flock of Js And lots of Es, And perfectly beautiful dark-blue Cs; This is the place to buy your knowledge At cheaper rates than are given at college!" Then he'd draw a long breath and spin like a top. This queer little man in an alphabet shop. —St. Nicholas.
